

FEEDING the 5,000
PRAISES, PRAYERS and NEEDS!

This week we served 131 meals. Vickie Cammel and the Green Team made Egg Flower Soup, Pork Fried Rice with Stir Fried Vegetables, and Strawberries and Bananas for dessert. Two teams served two motels and the streets of downtown Portsmouth.

- Praise God for the lady whose circumstances have improved dramatically since our prayers with her last week. She was so very excited and acknowledged the answered prayers.
- Praise God for the family who prayed for our team after they had prayed together.
- Praise God for the man who is able to move back to Virginia Beach with his family.
- Praise God for transportation for a mother of two children.
- Praise God for her youngest child who achieved straight A's on her report card.
- Praise God for her oldest daughter who is doing well in college. Please pray for a permanent home for this family.
- Praise God for the encounter with a lady who is going to talk with her pastor about partnering with this ministry.
- Praise God for the couple that wants to be picked up to come to church on Sunday.
- Praise God for the man who is reading the Bible we gave him with his wife.
- Pray for the motel resident whose relative is in jail and their need to move closer to the jail for visitation purposes.
- Pray for the couple in the motel who are having disagreements over financial situation.
- Pray for their home search and a permanent living situation.
- Pray for the lady who has promised to come to church on Sunday.
- Pray for the lady who had spiritual questions;
- pray for a Godly woman who can mentor and encourage her.
- Pray for good health, permanent housing and job opportunities for many motel residents.
- Pray for the man on the streets with cancer who is violent and needs counseling.
- Pray for the man on the street who has to appear in court on Thursday.
- Pray for the man who is receiving cancer treatment in Richmond – he needs transportation to Richmond on April 16th.

Needs: Please note the needs for Feeding 5,000 recipients are listed on one of the bulletin boards located in the library hallway. Please take an index card, purchase required items and return index card with item/s to the Feeding 5,000 collection bins at the canopy/office entrances.
